NOTICE

TO: ALL EMPLOYERS & EMPLOYEES IN THE FURNITURE INDUSTRY

REPRESENTIVITY ON THE COUNCIL

The Council has received many queries with regard to who represent Employers and in particular who represents Labour on the Council.

The current representatives of Employers on the Council are the Cape Furniture Manufacturers' Association (CFMA), contact person is Mr. Jerome Mausling 021 5915400.

The current representatives of Employees employed in the Furniture Manufacturing Industry is the National Union of Furniture & Allied Workers of South Africa (NUFAWSA), contact person Mr. Walter Dyers 021 4484375.

In order for another Employers Association or Trade Union to obtain a seat on the Council they require a minimum of twenty per cent (20%) of the employers or employees respectively as members.

The Council has received an application for a seat on the Council from the Democratic Furniture Undertakers and Allied Workers Union of South Africa (DFUAWUSA).

The Council has checked the number of DFUAWUSA members in the Furniture Manufacturing Industry and found that DFUAWUSA currently does not have sufficient members (20%) to obtain a seat on the Council.

Currently only NUFAWSA represents Labour on the Council.
